

Don't Just Watch the Action

Put Yourself in the Middle of It by Becoming One of Kern County's First Responders

Hall Ambulance is preparing the next generation of EMS workers with Class 49 of the Hall EMT Academy. Recruits receive ten weeks of FREE, paid training as they get ready to start working in the Hall Ambulance 9-1-1 system as an emergency medical technician (EMT).

As a Hall EMT, you'll respond to those who find themselves victims of sudden illness or injury. Make a difference for your community and yourself with a career you can be proud of.
